In the immediate vicinity of the center of the town of Poreč, in a unique location, five modern villas are being offered for sale. These villas impress with their architectural design, spacious gardens, and beautiful sea views, providing an ideal place for living or vacationing.

The villas are built with the highest quality materials, ensuring comfort and durability. The exterior insulation is made of 10 cm stone wool, with colors from renowned manufacturers Caparol/JUB. The exterior joinery is by Schuco in anthracite color with triple-glazed windows filled with argon, while the interior features white joinery. All windows are equipped with mosquito nets and electric shutters.

The interior joinery is by BINNI, with a height of 2.30 m and magnetic closure, and sound insulation between the walls further contributes to privacy and comfort. The ceilings are lowered with drywall, and the floors are covered with tiles that mimic wood, adding to the aesthetic appeal.

The villas are equipped with underfloor heating via a heat pump, and all rooms have inverter air conditioning units, ensuring optimal temperatures throughout the year.

Each villa consists of two levels. The ground floor features an entrance hallway, a utility room, a foyer, a bathroom, one bedroom, and an open space with a kitchen, living room, and dining area. Large Schuco/Aluplast glass walls lead to a covered
